Optional LIMA Day Tours:

The Pachacamac Ruins, considered by many to be the most important archeological site near Lima. Rising to prominence approximately 700 AD, this pre-Inkan temple was later used for the adoration of the Sun God.

The Gold Museum housing a priceless collection of pre-Columbian gold artifacts and the private armory of Miguel Mujica Gallo. Ancient cultures represented in this important collection include the Chavin, Paracas, Nazca, Tiahuanaco and Inka. Marvel at brilliant, intricate gold pieces, wood, textile and shell artifacts that represent some of the most basic activities of these important civilizations.

The Larco Herrera Museum founded in 1926 showcases remarkable chronological galleries providing an excellent overview of 3,000 years of development of Peruvian pre-Columbian history. Located in a unique 18th century vice-royal mansion built over a 7th century pre-Columbian pyramid, this masterpiece is surrounded by beautiful gardens. It features the finest gold and silver collection from ancient Peru, and the famous erotic archeological collection, one of the most visited Peruvian tourist attractions.
